GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

The Day's Doings in Brief From the World.

FOR AFTERNOON SERVICE

Many Events That Occur During a Day are Told Promptly by the Herald. Much News of Interest to the Readers of This Paper.

A Cool-headed Act.

NEW YORK, October 20.—Cool-headed keepers at the insane asylum on Ward's island prevented a great loss of life in that institution last night when the electric plant in the female wing caught fire. The keepers marshaled the inmates in line, telling them the fire had been started as a spectacular display for their benefit, and marched them safely and cheerfully through the blazing corridor out on the lawn. Here the lunatics watched the progress of the fire, clapping their hands in great glee at the sight. The building was gutted. Loss thirty thousand dollars.

Chainless Bicycles.

NEW YORK, October 20.—The long heralded chainless bicycles for 1898 will be put on the market tomorrow morning. A bicycle manufacturing concern will place them on sale simultaneously in its branches throughout the country. Thousands are ready for delivery. The matter has been kept very quiet. The price of the new wheel is $125. It weighs 24 pounds and its construction is simple.

Admiral Worden's Funeral.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—The president and cabinet attended the funeral service this morning at St. John's Episcopal church of Rear-Admiral Worden. The remains were then taken to Rawlins, N. Y., for burial. The pall bearers were Justice Gray, Secretary of Navy Long, General Miles, Admiral Franklin, Judge Bancroft Davis and Colonel Archibald Hopkins.

Butcher the Second.

HAVANA, October 20.—Cubans here declare General Blanco is not less cruel than Weyler. Besides the assassination of 2500 Cubans in Santiago de Cuba in 1879, General Blanco has on record the wanton murder of the gallant Cuban, Arcadio Llorente Vidal, who was invited to dinner and killed by Blanco's orders.

Feared a Mob.

METROPOLIS, Ill., October 20.—Sheriff Parks and deputy arrived this morning from Cartersville with seven Italians to be lodged in the local jail for safety from a mob. They murdered a Mr. Young Sunday night last near Cartersville, brutally stabbing out his brains and mutilating their victim with a butcher knife.

Say He Must Go.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., October 20.—All the students of the Baptist University walked out of the institution this morning and demanded the removal of the president before they will return. The arbitrary rulings of the president and the slight provocation on which he inflicts punishment are the causes.

A Sheriff's Eloquent Words.

LIBERTY, Mo., October 20.—A mob of 100 armed men surrounded the county jail here this morning for the purpose of lynching W. S. Foley, charged with murdering his mother and sister. Sheriff Hymer eloquently addressed the mob and succeeded in causing it to disperse voluntarily.

Yellow Jack's Ravages.

ST. LOUIS, October 20.—The following was the yellow fever situation up to last night: 16 new cases, 4 deaths. Mobile, 5 new cases. Clinton, Miss., 1 new case. Edwards, Miss., 4 new cases. NEW ORLEANS, October 20.—Thirty new cases and six deaths, the record at 1 o'clock given by the board of health

THE LUTGERT CASE.

The Foreman of the Jury Says They Cannot Agree.

CHICAGO, October 20.—Great crowds gathered early this morning waiting for a verdict in the Lutgert case, which was expected before 11 o'clock. The betting on the result is lively on the streets. Odds were posted even money on acquittal; one to three on disagreement and 5 to 1 against conviction.

The court room in which the trial is being held is stripped of every partable object for souvenirs by friends. Pieces of wood cut out of desks, chairs, benches and tables, and even Judge Tuohill's gavel and ink stand were carried away.

Judge Tuohill arrived at the criminal court building at 10:10 o'clock and at once court went into session. The enormous crowd began battling for admission and in a moment the room was filled. The judge, however, ordered the room cleared, when the judge and attorneys for both sides went into consultation. The general opinion is that the jury is hopelessly divided into a verdict.

At 11 o'clock the jury was brought into court and the prisoner was sent for. Shortly after his arrival the jury sent for Judge Tuohill and told him they could not agree. The judge told them to deliberate a few hours longer and attempt to reach agreement.

Rumors about the Lutgert case say the jury cannot agree in a hundred years. Judge Tuohill, however, is determined to keep them out until tonight and possibly longer.

The Lutgert jury came in at 2:40 p. m. and the foreman announced they could not agree.

Bryan Opens the Campaign.

OMAHA, Neb., October 20.—Wm. J. Bryan has begun the campaign in earnest in this state, delivering speeches this afternoon and evening at Chadron and Crawford. He will make two silver speeches daily from now until the close of the campaign. Today at Chadron Mr. Bryan received a grand ovation. Ten thousand people turned out to greet him. Tonight's meeting will be held in a big warehouse since no other building half large enough can be secured.

Mr. Bryan states that the state will repudiate the gold element by thirty thousand votes, an increase of ten thousand over last year. "We have no other building half large enough can be secured."

U. S. vs. U. P.

NEW YORK, October 20.—In the U. S. circuit court here today Attorney-General McKenna filed a bill of complaint in the suit of the United States against the U. P. Ry. Co., its receivers and J. P. Morgan. Complainant asks for an accounting of the assets and property of the Union Pacific railway received by Drexel Morgan and J. P. Morgan.

For Embezzlement.

At present he is without bail.

Numbered Streets and Avenues.

At odd times, the idea of having numbered streets and avenues in this city has been mentioned, and citizens who have lived in New York, Chicago, Brooklyn and other cities where this style of street nomenclature obtains, have expressed their faith in it as a great convenience not merely to residents but visitors and strangers desirous of finding their way about without difficulty.

The configuration of the town would indicate, however, that the system referred to could only be applied to the streets north of the track in anything like completeness although for streets parallel or in continuation of the streets north of the Southern Pacific track, the numbers might be used in extension. The main idea is for convenience and readiness in determining locations. Names do not signify locations; numbers do. There is no suggestion of indication of distances in names; there is in numbers. For instance; a man stands at Oregon street and the plaza and wishes to go to Rio Grande and Florence or North Campbell and Montana streets. He must inquire perhaps half a dozen times, and then likely be misled before he finally reaches the place where he wishes to go. But with numbered streets running north and south the numbered avenues running east and west, all the inquirer would have to do would be to count the blocks one way, and then blocks the other way.

To specify more, in illustration, let Arizona street be called First street, Second street, and so on, making Mesa avenue Fifth street, Eleventh avenue, Magoffin street Twelfth avenue. In continuation, let Chihuahua street be First street, Santa Fe street, Second street, and so on, making Mesa avenue Fifth street, Eleventh avenue, Magoffin street Twelfth avenue. In continuation, let Chihuahua street be First street, Santa Fe street, Second street, and so on, making Mesa avenue Fifth street, Eleventh avenue, Magoffin street Twelfth avenue.

Twenty-first street, the last street bordering on Cotton avenue being Twenty-first street. This would locate the bicycle track between 18th and 20th streets and 6th and 8th avenues. Then Cotton avenue might be termed Broadway, a fine drive extending from the river to the foothills.

This matter will undoubtedly be talked about further, and if property owners approve, it will be laid before the city council.

It's English. You Know.

New Haven, Conn.—It has been learned by members of the Yale crew on what is believed to be unquestionable authority that T. S. Gold, the famous Oxford stroke, is to accompany Coach Lehman to this country and will assist in the development of Harvard's crew.

The Dallas News says that on Monday the republican state executive committee, of which Hon. E. H. R. Green is chairman, vacated the quarters in the Oriental hotel, which it has occupied for more than a year and that Mayor W. M. Leary who is in charge of the bureau, will procure offices in the business center of the city, and the work of the committee will proceed as usual.

THE ETHICS OF WHISKERS.

Character Indicated by the Beard—American Liberty.

The question of beards has always been one in which men have taken the greatest interest. By turns it has been popular or unpopular for men to adorn their faces with hair, but a greater significance has always attached to it than to the mere changing of any other fashions. In ancient times
